PRINCE'S MADRAS VISIT.

ONLY SLIGHT DISTURBANCES.

LONDON, January 15.
A belated account from Madras of the Prince of Wales' arrival minimises the disturbances (mentioned in our earlier cable). It says that the Prince was welcomed by large crowds and that the streets were lined with natives in spite of the martial. There were only slight disturbances in one quarter of the city.

CHINA'S OPEN DOOR

WHAT SHE EXPECTS.

LONDON, January 15.
Speaking at a tea at the Chinese Legation to welcome General Hwang-fu, military adviser of the Chinese delegation at the Washington Conference, Dr. Wang Chung Yen, an expert to the delegation, and Mr. Wo Chu A, the new Chinese Consul-General, Mr. Chao Hsin Chin, the Chinese Charge d' Affaires, emphasised that China needed the sincere help and genuine goodwill of friendly nations, particularly Britain, but China would never submit to intervention for exploitation. The Chinese were convinced of the necessity of the policy of the open door and the Chinese expected their neighbours and allies to help them keep the door permanently open. He read a message from the Chinese Foreign Minister to London stating that the Chinese Cabinet fully supported the original Chinese proposals at Washington with regard to Shantung and did not assent to any compromise proposed by the Japanese Minister to Peking.

MOLIERE TRECENTARY FETES.

IMPRESSIVE SORBONNE CEREMONY

PARIS, January 15.
The trecentary fetes in honour of Moliere were opened with impressive ceremony at the Sorbonne, M. Millerand presiding. The great hall was thronged with literary and dramatic distinguished men. Foreign delegates were present from every part of the world, including China. Special production of Moliere's plays is taking place in many theatres and a Moliere exhibition has been opened.

NEW TROOPS HERE.

THE KING'S LIVERPOOL
REGIMENT ARRIVES.

NEW GENERAL OFFICER COMMANDING.

Hongkong's new garrison unit arrived yesterday by the s.s. "Himalaya" and disembarked at the Naval Yard early in the afternoon. Besides the relieving troops, who belong to the 2nd Battalion King's Liverpool Regiment, Major General Sir John Fowler K.C.M.G., C.B., D.S.O., successor to Lieut. General Kirkpatrick as G.O.C. the troops in China was on board with Lady Fowler and the Misses Fowler.

The retiring G.O.C. went down with Colonel Nicholson and other staff officers to meet the troops on their arrival alongside the Naval Yard at about 9 a.m., and advance parties came off shortly afterwards. At 2 p.m. the rest of the battalion marched up to Murray Barracks and began, so to speak, to "dig in" in the quarters so long occupied by the Wiltshiremen. The latter vacated them some time ago to go into tents on the parade ground.

Major General Fowler, who formerly commanded the troops in the Straits Settlements, has had a distinguished military career, chiefly in the Indian Army. He served in several Indian campaigns as well as in the South African war and during the Great War he commanded a brigade of the Indian Expeditionary Force.

The 2nd Battalion, King's Liverpool Regiment saw service in India, on the North West frontier during the war and was engaged in a frontier expedition at Bushire. They went from there to Quetta and after taking part in the Afghan Expedition in 1919 they were transferred to Cairo, and subsequently to Khartoum. In December 1920 they returned to Egypt and Cairo was their last station before they were ordered to proceed to Hongkong.

Most of the new troops are Lancashire lads and fairly young soldiers. Several of the officers, however, were seconded from their Battalion for service in France during the war. The strength of the unit is 805 of all ranks. Lieut. Colonel Hyslop, C. B. E., is in command and Major H. L. Wright is second in command. The other officers are:—Capt. G. E. M. Skinner, Captain and Adjutant W. A. Hannay, A.F.C., Capt. F. G. Harden, Capt. W. J. H. Howard, D.S.O., Capt. B. C. Cross, Capt. N. E. B. Kynaston, M.C., Capt. W. B. Moorhead, Capt. J. Collins, Lieut. R. H. Jones, D.S.O., M. C., Lieut. H. Porter, Lieut. C. P. Moore, M.C., Lieut. H. A. Ridding, M.C., Lieut. S. C. Ager, M.C., Lieut. R. M. Hewitt, Lieut. J. W. Thompson, Lieut. W. J. Humphreys, M.C., Lieut. E. L. Loader, Lieut. D. J. Jones, Lieut. A. Clarke, 2nd Lieut. F. White. In addition to Mr. Hyslop the ladies accompanying the garrison are:—Mrs. Harden, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Kynaston, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Clarke, and Mrs. D. J. Jones.

The newcomers are keen footballers and were runners-up in the League Competition at Cairo. One Company, under Capt. Skinner, will leave shortly for Peking to take up duty as Legation Guards.

In view of the fact that the Chinese New Year is approaching, the Commissioner of Water Police at Canton has chartered two steamers in addition to the four previously chartered for the purpose of patrolling the rivers.

The death took place in the Shanghai General Hospital on Tuesday, of the Rev. Alfred B. Street, formerly with the American Presbyterian Mission, Hoihow, Haikow, at the age of 62 years. In recent years, the Rev. Mr. Street worked as an independent missionary on the island of Hainan. He spent 30 years in China and besides his other work paid special attention to the dialects of the island with a view to publishing literature that could be read by all the natives there. This work included, or rather in a part of his work, the new phonetic script by which he was preparing a writing which could be used all over China. Mr. Street was in Shanghai attending to some printing at the time of his death. He is survived by a wife, the death of whom occurred in the war. The strength of the unit is 805 of all ranks. Lieut. Colonel

ENGLAND IN 1875.PLEASANT PICTURES OF THE PAST.

An agreeable and pleasantly discursive account of English society in 1875-6 is given by Mr. R. H. Dana in "Hospitable England in the 'Seventies'" (just published, Murray, 21s. net). Mr. Dana is an American, the son of the famous American author of "Two Years Before the Mast," and in 1875 he had just left Harvard with a distinguished record as an oarsman and a scholar. His father's name was a passport everywhere, all the houses of the great opened their doors to him, and he kept a journal which is always interesting and never malicious. This he has reproduced here with further comment. It is full of quaint information.

In 1875 people still took chicken bones in their hands.
In America we were generally taught not to do so, but I find these nice ladies do, in a delicate and fine manner, after the larger part of the mat-has been cut off—but not with the little finger curled.
Going to dine with Earl Russell at Richmond, he found that "the guests for dinner are by an understanding excused from dressing—the men appearing in their frock coats worn in the daytime in London." This was still the age of the frock-coat. That garment must have produced an odd appearance at dinner.

GLADSTONE IN DEBATE.

He has some curious remarks on English pronunciation at that date.
The majority of the people I have met drop their "g's" in the present participle. It is "hunting," "riding."
They pronounce "interesting" in three syllables. We naturally elide the second, but they omit it altogether.
It was noticeable that Mr. and Mrs.
Gladstone both pronounced the word
as we do in America.

He sagaciously noted of Mr. Gladstone, after watching him in debate:
"He always assumed that he was morally right, for, as Lowell once summed it up, Gladstone had the good fortune which followed him through life, that whenever he changed his views, the Almighty changed
His at the same time."

It was as he says, not a little amusing to Mr. Gladstone's political opponents.
There are some good stories, though not absolutely new. One was told him by the first Lord Coleridge of Cockburn's rudeness as Bishop Judge on the Alabama Arbitration Tribunal at Geneva.

When Caleb Cushing, one of the American lawyers who was a great linguist, asked in what language the court preferred to be addressed, Cockburn, who prided himself on his own linguistic power, replied,
"In Choctaw, in Choctaw."

Another concerns Sir Alfred Austin and Lord Young, the famous Scottish judge, but is of a date long after 1875.
Lord Young, chancing to meet
Austin, the Poet Laureate, asked him what he was doing. Austin replied
"I am writing a few verses to keep the wolf from the door." Lord Young, quick as a flash, replied, "Do you read the verses to the wolf?"

He had one uncanny experience in England while staying with Lord Coleridge. He went to bed in a wainscoted bedroom, after sitting for a time in an armchair in front of the fire. He woke suddenly, with a consciousness that there was something in the room.

"The fire had gone out. The room was dark as ink. I heard a grating sound as of a chair moved along the carpet. The sound came from the direction of the armchair in which I had been sitting." He leaped out of bed, seized the matches, and struck a light, to find the room empty, but "the armchair was not where I left it, but very much nearer the bed."
There was no other phenomenon except that he heard "an old dog in the garden below baying and growling."

Your health, strength and energy depend upon the condition of your blood.
If you feel weak and out of sorts, if you suffer with indigestion, rheumatism, pains, palpitation, sleeplessness, bad dreams, pains in the back, are nervous, low spirited, nervous and lacking in "go," the only way to restore your health is by building up your blood. Dr. Williams'

BANQUE INDUSTRIELLE.

WINDING UP PETITION.

A FURTHER ADJOURNMENT.

REORGANISATION PLANS.

Adjourned in October for three months the winding up petition in respect of the Banque Industrielle de Chine was mentioned in the Supreme Court before the Puisne Judge (Mr. H. H. J. Gompertz) again to-day.

In making an application for a further adjournment Mr. P. C. Jenkin presented an affidavit by the local Manager, M. Montargis. The document set out that from telegrams and other information received by him M. Montargis was convinced "that the French Government has been authorised by the French Chamber of Deputies to financially assist the Banque Industrielle de Chine and all that remains to be done is that the Finance Committee shall forward its proposals for financing the said scheme of re-organisation for the final approval of the chamber of deputies. After such final approval it will be submitted to the shareholders and creditors for their approval. In my opinion the creditors of my Bank in Hongkong will be well advised to await the Government's proposals because as above stated the French Government are now authorised to assist the Banque Industrielle de Chine and it would therefore be better for the creditors in any event to await the publication of such details as they will in any event obtain a larger refund than if the Bank were forthwith wound up in Hongkong and a distribution of assets made."

Mr. Jenkin said that so far as was known no order had yet been made in London although the London petition came before the Courts to-day. Neither had any order been made in any other Court in any jurisdiction in which the Bank operated. Altogether the Bank had 26 branches which operated under British, American, Japanese, Belgian and Chinese law.

The Puisne Judge: Chinese law—it would be the French law wouldn't it?

Mr. Jenkin agreed that it probably would.

Proceeding, counsel said a communication had been received from the Official Receiver in London which took the same line as that set out in the affidavit of M. Montargis—that it would be to the benefit of the creditors to await the proposed re-organisation.

Mr. Jenkin then asked that the petition should be adjourned to Monday, July 3. That would not prejudice anybody, he said, because His Honour could again direct that any person interested might apply to the Court by summons for the restoration of the hearing of the petition. Should the French Court make an order before July 3 for the winding up of the Bank an application would be made to His Honour forthwith for a similar order here.

The Puisne Judge: I see that in the affidavit you have read to me the manager of the Bank refers to a certain cable he has received from Shanghai. You have not made that an exhibit. Personally, I do not wish to see it but in a case of this kind it is as well to have the utmost publicity and it would be as well to state that any person interested may peruse it.

Mr. Jenkin: Yes, a certified copy will be filed on the Court file and will become open to inspection by any one who desires to see it.

The Puisne Judge: I have had the advantage of seeing the cable received by the official Receiver in Hongkong and purporting to be from the official Receiver in London. On that, as I construe it, it is most emphatically in the interests of the creditors that nothing should be done at present.

Mr. Jenkin: I understand the official Receiver is willing that this cable from London should be open to the perusal of any person interested.

The hearing of the petition was then adjourned to July 3, at 10.15 a.m.

SEAMEN'S STRIKE.

DISPUTE STILL CONTINUES.

FURTHER CONFERENCES.

WHAT THE MEN WANT NOW.

Numerous conferences held during the week-end have failed to bring the strike of Chinese seamen appreciably nearer to a settlement. It becomes more and more evident as the dispute proceeds that the Union could not have settled upon any definite plan of campaign when the strike was called on and that the executive were not fully instructed as to the views held by the bulk of the members. They seem merely to be adapting their policy to meet contingencies as they arise.

The advice of the Union executive to accept the offer of Governmental arbitration and resume work to-day has definitely gone by the board. Only a few of the strikers came down from Canton this morning and many hundreds went from here to Canton. The position taken up by the men now is that they will not return to work until they have definite evidence that the employers will grant them some increase in the present rates.

Last night the Secretary for Chinese Affairs (the Hon. Mr. E. R. Hallifax) went down to the Union headquarters with the Hon. Mr. Lau Chu Pak and the Hon. Mr. Chou Shou Son. They endeavoured unsuccessfully to persuade the men to resume work to-day. The strikers held out for proof that the employers would make definite concessions and finally it was arranged that four representatives of the Union should talk things over with Mr. Hallifax at his office this morning.

In conversation with a China Mail reporter after this morning's conference one of the Union delegates said that Mr. Hallifax had wanted to know whether or not the men intended to resume and they had replied that the men would not resume until they knew definitely whether or not the employers were going to grant some increase.

To emphasise the men's position the Union official took out from his pocket a box of matches. "Here you are," he said, "supposing we are going to sell you this box of matches. We tell you that we want four cents for it. It is no good to us for you to say 'Alright, give me the matches and we will talk about the price afterwards.' We want to know before we give you the box that we are really going to get something for it."

"Then," suggested the reporter "if the employers said to you that they would give you so much percent increase but not all that you ask for you would be content to resume work and leave the rest to arbitration?" He said that that was how the men felt about it.

The conference with Mr. Hallifax concluded at about 11.30 a.m. After arranging to meet the Union delegate again at 4 o'clock this afternoon, Mr. Hallifax went off to a meeting of the shipping companies that had been convened for 11 a.m.

It is rumoured that several other labour organisations are offering encouragement to the seamen and that the men who work on the steam launches and motor boats are becoming restive. Since mid day on Saturday some twenty four vessels have arrived in the harbour and more than half of them are affected by the dispute. The French mail boat "Porthos" arrived this morning but as she has a coloured crew of another nationality she will not be affected. The Admiral Line Steamer "Wanatchee" which has an American crew is definitely sailing at 6 p.m., but in regard to the "Taiyo Maru" although she had cleared to sail this afternoon it is doubtful whether she will be able to get away.

CANTON MEN'S STAND.

Mr. Chak Hon Ki, a Guild official who returned from Canton by train to-day, reports that the 6,000 men there support their colleagues' attitude, declaring that they will not return to Hongkong until a guarantee is given that arbitrators will take up the matter and that reasonable increases will be granted. Another 700 strikers left for Canton this afternoon.

The Shanghai Interport golfers, Messrs. Barrett, Beath, Cumming, Ferrier, Peables and Roberts arrived on the "Empress of Japan" on Saturday. Captain Dewar who was expected to come down as captain of the team, did not make the trip. It has been arranged to entertain the Shanghai and Hongkong Interport players at a dinner on Wednesday night after the Interport match at Fanling. All members of the R.H.K.G.C. are invited; and those wishing to be present should send in their names to Mr. Ross before 4 p.m. to-morrow (Tuesday). A thoroughly enjoyable evening is promised. The Hon. Mr. A.G. Stephen will preside.

LOCAL JAIL ESCAPE.

FUGITIVE ARRESTED JUST IN TIME.

SIX MONTHS' SENTENCE.

David Tsay, alias Chui Chin, the extradition prisoner who escaped from the detention cell at the Central Police Station on Christmas night, was re-arrested by Chief Chinese Detective Hau Hang at the Kong On Boarding House, Yau Lan Chik Street, Canton, on Friday night and brought back to Hongkong on Saturday. The detective arrived in Canton just in time to get his quarry, for it was ascertained that Tsay had just passed a coat for $1.70 and booked a passage on a trading junk for Swatow. When faced by the detective in his room, he was getting together his things to sail within the hour. He candidly admitted defeat of his plans and surrendered without any struggle.

When he was produced before Magistrate Wood this morning charged with having escaped from legal custody, he pleaded "guilty," and received six months' imprisonment with hard labour.

LOST STATUE.

MISSING MEMORIAL TO FOUN-DER OF THE PENNY POST.

Ardent London-lovers are wondering where the statue of Sir Rowland Hill, founder of the penny post, has been hidden since it was replaced outside the Royal Exchange by a war memorial to London regiments.

The when and where of its reappearance is a topic in the City, and cynics suggest that it will not be re-erected until the Post Office is justified in setting up beside it a statue to Mr. Kellaway as the man who restored a penny letter-rate.

"A probable place for its re-erection is the Postmen's Park, an ancient graveyard near St. Martin's-le-Grand, which has been popular with Post Office workers since it became a recreation ground," an official of the General Post Office told a reporter.
"It is in safe keeping, and will certainly be put up again, when and where I cannot say definitely."

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

THIS AFTERNOON'S MEETING.

NEW BILLS CONSIDERED.

PUBLISHING VOLUNTEER INEFFICIENCY.

New bills to amend the Crown Lands Resumption Ordinance, the Volunteer Ordinance, certain provisions of peace treaty orders, and the Maintenance Order (facilities for enforcement) Ordinance were considered at this afternoon's meeting of the Legislative Council, the first held this year. The second reading of the bill to restrict the taking of legal proceedings in respect of certain acts and matters done during the war and to provide in certain cases remedies in substitution thereof was not proceeded with at this meeting.

ATTENDANCE.

Those present were:—
His Excellency the Governor, Sir Reginald Edward Stubbs, K.C.M.G., H.E., the General Officer Commanding the Troops, Lieut.-General Sir G. M. Kirkpatrick, K.C.B., K.C.S.I.
The Colonial Secretary, the Hon. Dr. Claud Severn, C.M.G., L.L.D.
The Attorney-General, the Hon. Mr. J. H. Kemp, C.B.E., K.C.
The Colonial Treasurer, the Hon. Mr. C. McI. Messer, O.B.E.
The Secretary for Chinese Affairs, the Hon. Mr. E. R. Balhfax, O.B.E.
The Director of Education, the Hon. Mr. E. A. Living.
The Director of Public Works, the Hon. Mr. T. L. Perkins.
The Hon. Mr. H. E. Pollock, K.C.
The Hon. Mr. Lau Chai-pak.
The Hon. Mr. Chou Siou-sun.
The Hon. Mr. H. W. Bird.
The Hon. Mr. A. O. Lang.
Mr. A. G. M. Fletcher, O.B.E., Clerk of Councils.

PAPERS TABLED.

The Hon. Colonial Secretary tabled the new European police pension regulations, the revised parcel postage rates, the new Cremation Ordinance regulations, the Prison Ordinance European warders' medical attendance, the Merchant Shipping Ordinance regulation relating to bright harbour lights, the revised quarantine orders, the Piracy Prevention Ordinance amendment, and the Hongkong University statutes alteration, all of which have already been published.

PRINCE'S RECEPTION HALL.

HON. MR. A. O. LANG'S QUESTIONS.

The Hon. Mr. A. O. Lang gave notice of his intention to ask the following questions:—

- (1) What, if any, use is to be made of the building, now under erection, on "the finest site" after the visit of H. R. H. the Prince of Wales.
- (2) What, if any, precautions are being taken to cope with an outbreak of fire during the erection of the building.
- (3) Whether the risk of fire and that of damage by typhoon has been covered by insurance.

LAND RESUMPTION.

CHECKING MERE SPECULATION.

The Attorney-General moved the first reading of a Bill to amend the Crown Lands Resumption Ordinance (1921) the objects and reasons of which were given as follows:—

The object of this Ordinance is to make it clear that in resumptions under the Crown Lands Resumption Ordinance no compensation is to be awarded in respect of mere expectancies or probabilities. For example the owner of agricultural land held under a Crown lease which prohibits the erection of buildings except with the licence of the Crown is not to receive any compensation with respect to the possibility that such a licence might at some time have been obtained if the land had not been resumed. This principle is not as was it in force under the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts in England, and it seems only reasonable that the community should not have to pay for a mere possibility of this kind which the claimant could never have enforced.

The reason for the amendment of Ordinance No. 14 of 1921 on this point is that that Ordinance laid down as a general rule that the basis of compensation should be the market value of the land, and it appears to be the case that speculators, in the case of agricultural land for instance, are often prepared to pay more than the value of the land for agricultural purposes in the hope that they may be allowed to convert it into building land. The claimant in such a case would no doubt argue that the speculator's price formed or was evidence of a market price above the real value of the land as agricultural land. This position is all the more likely to arise in a district which is about to be developed by the Government for building purposes, and if the above argument were to prevail the result would be that the community would have to pay a very much increased price for the land, although this increased price was based solely on the mere possibility of conversion which the Government have absolute discretion to refuse. The effect would be to make development more expensive and to raise the rents on the developed property, and it might even have the effect of checking development altogether in a particular district.

The intention of this bill, therefore, is to provide that the rule of taking the market price as the basis of compensation is to be subject to the further rule that no compensation is to be given in respect of such mere probabilities. For convenience, the whole of section 2 of Ordinance No. 14 of 1921 is to be repealed and re-enacted, but practically the only part of the substituted section which is new is paragraph (c).
The Hon. Colonial Secretary seconded the motion and the Bill was read a first time.

VOLUNTEER ORDINANCE.

PROVIDING A PENALTY FOR INEFFICIENCY.

The Attorney-General moved the first reading of a Bill to amend further the Volunteer Ordinance, (1920), the objects and reasons of which were given as follows:—
The object of this bill is to secure a greater percentage of efficiency in the Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps.

The Council then adjourned sine die.

BIRTH.

NIXON.—At Shanghai, on the 16th January, to Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Nixon, a daughter.

BRIDES' DRESS RULES.

CLERIC SUGGESTS EVENING FROCKS.

The Rev. W. C. Robertson, of the Episcopal Church, Chattanooga, Tennessee, has issued a code of rules according to which the dress of brides and bridesmaids at church weddings shall consist of what is technically known as evening dress. The V-shape, or square-cut neck will be allowed, but garments must have a complete front and back.

Regarding the length of gowns the cleric rules: "Skirts must not be higher than where the spring of the calf of the leg begins."
The sleeves must not fall short of the elbows. Real covering by a hat or a veil must be provided for the head. If the dress is made of transparent material it must have a lining.

At present there is no penalty provided for inefficiency, and some members of the corps have failed to carry out the minimum of training which they undertook to do on enrolment.

The Colonial Secretary seconded the motion and the Bill was read a first time.

PEACE TREATY ORDERS.

ADAPTING PROVISIONS TO LOCAL CIRCUMSTANCES.

The Attorney-General moved the first reading of a Bill to modify certain provisions of the Treaty of Peace Order, 1919, the Treaty of Peace (Austria) Order, 1920, the Treaty of Peace (Bulgaria) Order, 1920, and the Treaty of Peace (Hungary) Order, 1921, as amended, for the purpose of adapting the provisions of the said orders to the circumstances of the Colony of Hongkong.

The Colonial Secretary seconded the motion and the Bill was read a first time.

MAINTENANCE ORDERS.

FACILITIES FOR ENFORCEMENT.

The Attorney-General moved the first reading of a Bill to amend the Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Ordinance (1921), the objects and reasons of which were given as follows:—

The object of this bill is to amend the Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Ordinance 1921, so as to provide for its extension to maintenance orders made in another Colony or Protectorate or Dominion, which may hereafter be willing to enter into reciprocal relations with this Colony. In view of the numerous British-administered territories in the Far East, it seems desirable to establish such reciprocity. The bill is introduced on instructions from the Secretary of State for the Colonies. The Colonial Secretary seconded the motion and the Bill was read a first time.

GOODBYE TO G. O. C.

Before the Council adjourned His Excellency referred with regret to the approaching departure of Lieut.-General Kirkpatrick, expressing appreciation of his services to the Council and to the Colony and voicing the Council's best wishes for his future success. Lieut.-General Kirkpatrick briefly replied, observing that his association with the Council had been both a pleasant duty and an instructive experience and that he would also watch closely for news of the Congress which he felt sure was in store for the Colony.

The Council then adjourned sine die.

COUNCIL QUESTIONS.

HOUSING PROBLEMS STILL.

DAILY SMALL POX RETURNS.

The questions submitted by unofficial members at this afternoon's meeting of the Legislative Council are reprinted below with their respective answers.

THE HON. MR. BIRD'S QUESTIONS.

(1) What action does the Government propose to take in connection with the Report of the Committee appointed for the purpose of considering what measures can be best taken (i) To facilitate the prompt acquisition by applicants of sites which they may require. (ii) To facilitate the prompt passing of building plans?

1. Action, in accordance with the instructions of the Government given prior to the appointment of Committee but practically in accordance with its views as expressed in the report referred to, is proceeding as follows:—
(a) There are now ten students training for Chinese surveyors and draughtsmen.
(b) A European clerk has been appointed to the Survey Office.
(c) Extra accommodation will be provided not only for the Survey Staff but for others of the Public Works Department Staff in the New Building to be erected near the present building.
(d) The erection of these offices will be commenced within the next few days.

(e) An Acting Clerk of Works has been appointed to the Building Ordinance Office from amongst its existing staff. Also an additional overseer to fill the vacancy thus created. An additional Assistant Engineer for this office is being indentured for.
(f) It is proposed to leave the other appointments suggested in abeyance until Mr. Wright's return early in March so that they may be considered in connection with other changes in the office.

(g) The Government is not satisfied as to the desirability of creating a Committee to take the place of the Governor-in-Council for the purpose of considering exemptions or modifications asked for in plans, but arrangements are being made on the lines suggested in the report for accelerating consideration of such exemptions and modifications.

2. With reference to the statements published in the Press relating to cases of communicable disease, are all cases of small-pox included therein, if not, why not?

2. All cases of small-pox are included in the return which is sent to the Press.

THE HON. MR. POLLOCK'S QUESTIONS.

(1) In view of the following statement, which occurs at the end of Section 1 of the recently published Census Report:—

"The number of floors in Hongkong and Kowloon occupied by Chinese has increased, in the last 10 years, by 7,117, which at 15 persons per floor, a fairly high average, affords accommodation for 106,755 out of a total increase of 157,398 in the Chinese urban population, thus leaving a large portion of the increase to find accommodation in houses already fully occupied in 1911";

will the Government state how many floors in Chinese tenement houses have been made available for occupation

(i) in Hongkong; (ii) in Kowloon since the Census was taken? Will the Government also state to what extent further floors in tenement houses are likely to be available for occupation during the first half of 1922?

1. The floors made available in Chinese tenements between 24th April, 1921, and 10th January, 1922, are:—
(i) Hongkong...140.
(ii) Kowloon...930.

It is anticipated that the following

A NOVEL PLEA.

CAPTAIN'S UNREALISED VISIONS.

A captain in the Indian Army, who married an operatic singer and was said by counsel to have had visions of being "kept in the lap of luxury and idleness," was defendant to proceedings brought by his wife at Mold police-court.

The complainant was Mary Francis Louise Nicholas, and she applied for a separation order from Wilfred Albany Nicholas, now a captain in the Indian Army, and whose home address was given as Netherdown-road, St. Margaret's, Twickenham.

Mr. J. Beale Marston, for Mrs. Nicholas, said his client was a vocalist of some repute, and had sung in Beecham opera for some years. The defendant had visions that he was being married to a prima donna and was going to be kept in the lap of luxury and idleness. Since then he had persistently refused to support his wife. On one occasion when the wife went to London to ask what he intended to do he fired a pistol at her. The complainant said she was a daughter of the late Dr. Powell, the smith, of Buckley. Her husband refused to live with her because she declined to take a tour with Quinlan's Opera Company in Australia and New Zealand. She had had throat trouble, and her voice had completely gone. Since her husband deserted her she had worked on a newspaper, at a Government factory, and in one of the London hospitals. Her husband's salary was £750 a year.

The defendant did not appear, but in a letter addressed to the Court he stated: "Maintenance did not form part of the contract between my wife and myself, as is evident from the fact that when the marriage took place, on January 9, 1912, I was a minor and attested pupil to an architect, and but for the war would not have been in a position to support a wife for at least ten years, as any architect would confirm. Since leaving my wife, about February or March, 1913, the money I have sent her, in excess of the allowance for the child (some £70), has been in the nature of a gift and should not be regarded as a precedent. . . . Not having my wife's facilities for employment of legal assistance, I fear I shall not be able to contest the case, the only legal expense I propose to incur being an application for possession of my son, whom I had entered at the most expensive preparatory school in England and prior to my return from Mesopotamia."

The Bench granted the order applied for, with maximum payment of maintenance to the wife of £2 per week, and 10s. in respect of the child, and an advocate's fee of £3. 3s.

A costermonger, charged at the South-Western police-court with causing obstruction in the street with his barrow, was asked by Mr. Samuel Pope, the magistrate, if he would promise not to do it again. "Yes, I will," said the man readily. "That's a promise," said the magistrate, "let us seal it." His Worship held out his hand, and the man grasping it, the two shook hands. After this the man was discharged.

additional floors will be available by 30th June, 1922:—

Hongkong...290.
Kowloon...680.

This latter figure can however only be regarded as an approximation.

(2) Will the Government give the Council information as to the progress which is being made with the financial negotiations for the transfer of the military establishments to the mainland?

2. Negotiations are in progress, but it is impossible at present to furnish any useful information.

AN EARL'S WIDOW.

SECOND MARRIAGE UNHAPPY.

The story of the unhappy marriage of an earl's widow after an acquaintanceship which lasted a month was unfolded in the Divorce Court when Mrs. Ann Lambart, of Half Moon-street, W., was granted a decree of restitution of conjugal rights. Before her remarriage the petitioner was the widow of the Earl of Mexborough.

Mrs. Lambart, telling the story of her marriage, said she had a villa at Florence, and while there in May, 1920, she made the acquaintance of Mr. Lambart, whom she married on June 1, 1920.

After travelling for a while, they lived at her house in Thurloe-square, London.

Mr. Cotes Freedy: I think that almost from the beginning you found it very difficult to humour Mr. Lambart and keep him at home?

Mrs. Lambart: Yes.

Eventually did your differences culminate in his losing his temper and saying he would not live with you any longer?—Yes.

You went to live at Chapel-street, while your husband went to Florence and established himself in your villa there?—Yes.

And wrote you once or twice suggesting a formal separation and that you should keep him?—Yes.

On June 5, 1921, Mrs. Lambart said, she received a letter saying:—

"It is little more than a year since we were married, somewhat precipitately. After three months of married life I saw that in mentality, in intellect, and in tastes, we were as the poles asunder.

"In addition to this, your unfortunate temper made any chance of a harmonious existence extremely remote, and so I left you. Since then I have found sympathy and the companionship that I sought and thought I had found when I met you in Florence last year, and so I shall never return to you.

"My life is nearing its close, and I do not intend that the years that remain to me shall be spent in loneliness, and so good-bye.—Alfred."

Mr. Cotes Freedy: Your husband is sixty?—Mrs. Lambart: Yes, to-day. She replied to the letter:—

Dear Alfred.—I have received your letter. I have nothing to reproach myself with as regards my behaviour to you during our short married life, and therefore you have nothing to forgive.

The little effort you made to make me happy during the time I was with you has not given me confidence in your undertaking to do your best to make me happy if I were to return to you. So I must decline to take the risk. This is my final resolve.—Yours, Alfred.

The decree was granted.
